

Easter Around the World

The Easter bunny brings chocolate in England, France, Germany, Switzerland, the US, Austria, Australia, Denmark and Norway.

Sweden and Finland have a tradition called "The Easter Witch". Children dress up as witches or old ladies and give pictures in exchange for sweets.

In France the bells fly off to Rome and return filled with Easter eggs and other sweets.

In Italy the Easter bunny sends the Easter chicks out to help him place the Easter eggs for children to find.

The Easter Bilby, a small marsupial similar to a rabbit, delivers Easter gifts in Australia.
